

Literature Circle Questions

Name: Mrs. Szakasits

Date: Jan. 20, 2010

Type of Thinking	Question/Discussion Starters	Your Question (Write your answer on the back.)
Recall Remember what has been learned.	Who _____? What _____? When _____? Where _____? Why _____? How _____?	Who is the narrator of the story?
Similarity Compare objects, events, or ideas to discover what they have in common.	How are _____ and _____ alike? What similarities do _____ and _____ share? Compare _____ with _____. _____ : _____ :: _____ : _____	Compare M.L. and his siblings as children with your life.
Difference Compare objects, events, or ideas to discover how they are different.	Describe the differences between _____ and _____. What distinguishes _____ from _____? Contrast _____ with _____. Why is _____ not like _____?	Describe the differences between how white people & African American people were treated when M.L. was young.
Cause/Effect Understand how one action causes another.	What was the cause of _____? What was the effect of _____? What influence/impact did _____ have? If _____ occurred, what might have happened?	What influence did Mother Dear's discussion with the children have on M.L.?
Idea to Example Find data to support ideas or deepen understanding of a concept.	Give some examples of _____. List several types of _____. State an opinion or idea and give evidence to support it.	Give some examples of ways Daddy modeled standing up to injustice.
Example to Idea Infer or explain a concept, rule, or generalization from examples.	Describe the main idea of _____. What word best describes _____? _____ and _____ are examples of _____. What type of _____ is _____?	What word best describes Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.?
Evaluation Decide if events or ideas are right or wrong, truthful or no, and fair or unjust. Defend your conclusions.	Do you agree or disagree with _____? Why? Was _____ right or wrong? Why? Rank the ideas or events from least to most significant. Do you support _____? Why?	Do you agree that Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.'s "I Have a Dream" speech turned the world upside down? Why?

Book: My Brother Martin

Pages: 6-37